THOMAS BROWN

Just an altogether good guy,
He does as he would be done by.

CLEO BAXLEY

She always helps us when in need,
She's frank and truthfully a friend indeed.

JOE BOWEN

Tall and handsome, sweet and gay,
They made him, and threw the pattern away.

LYNWOOD COMER

It is noble to have a friend,
But still nobler to be a friend.

CAROLYN DAVIS

Dreaming eyes, a most pleasing personality,
She's the hit in her locality.

HAZEL ETHRIDGE

Still they gazed and their wonder grew,
That one small head carried all she knew.

RAD ETHRIDGE

As faithful a lad as you may know,
Who delights not in pomp or show.

ELOISE ETHRIDGE

Happy am I, from care I'm free,
Why aren't they all content like me?

THELMA ETHRIDGE

Happy-go-lucky is her trend,
But all in all a very good friend.

MARTHA LOU GORDON

Her very frown is fairer far,
Than smiles of other maidens are.

EUGENIA GODARD

Graceful and useful in all she does,
Lovely and jolly to those she loves.

VIVIAN HAWKINS

There's mischief in this lass so sweet,
With cheerful smiles to those she meets.

ALONZA HADDOCK

The world's no better if we worry,
Life's no longer if we hurry.

ANDERSON HODGE

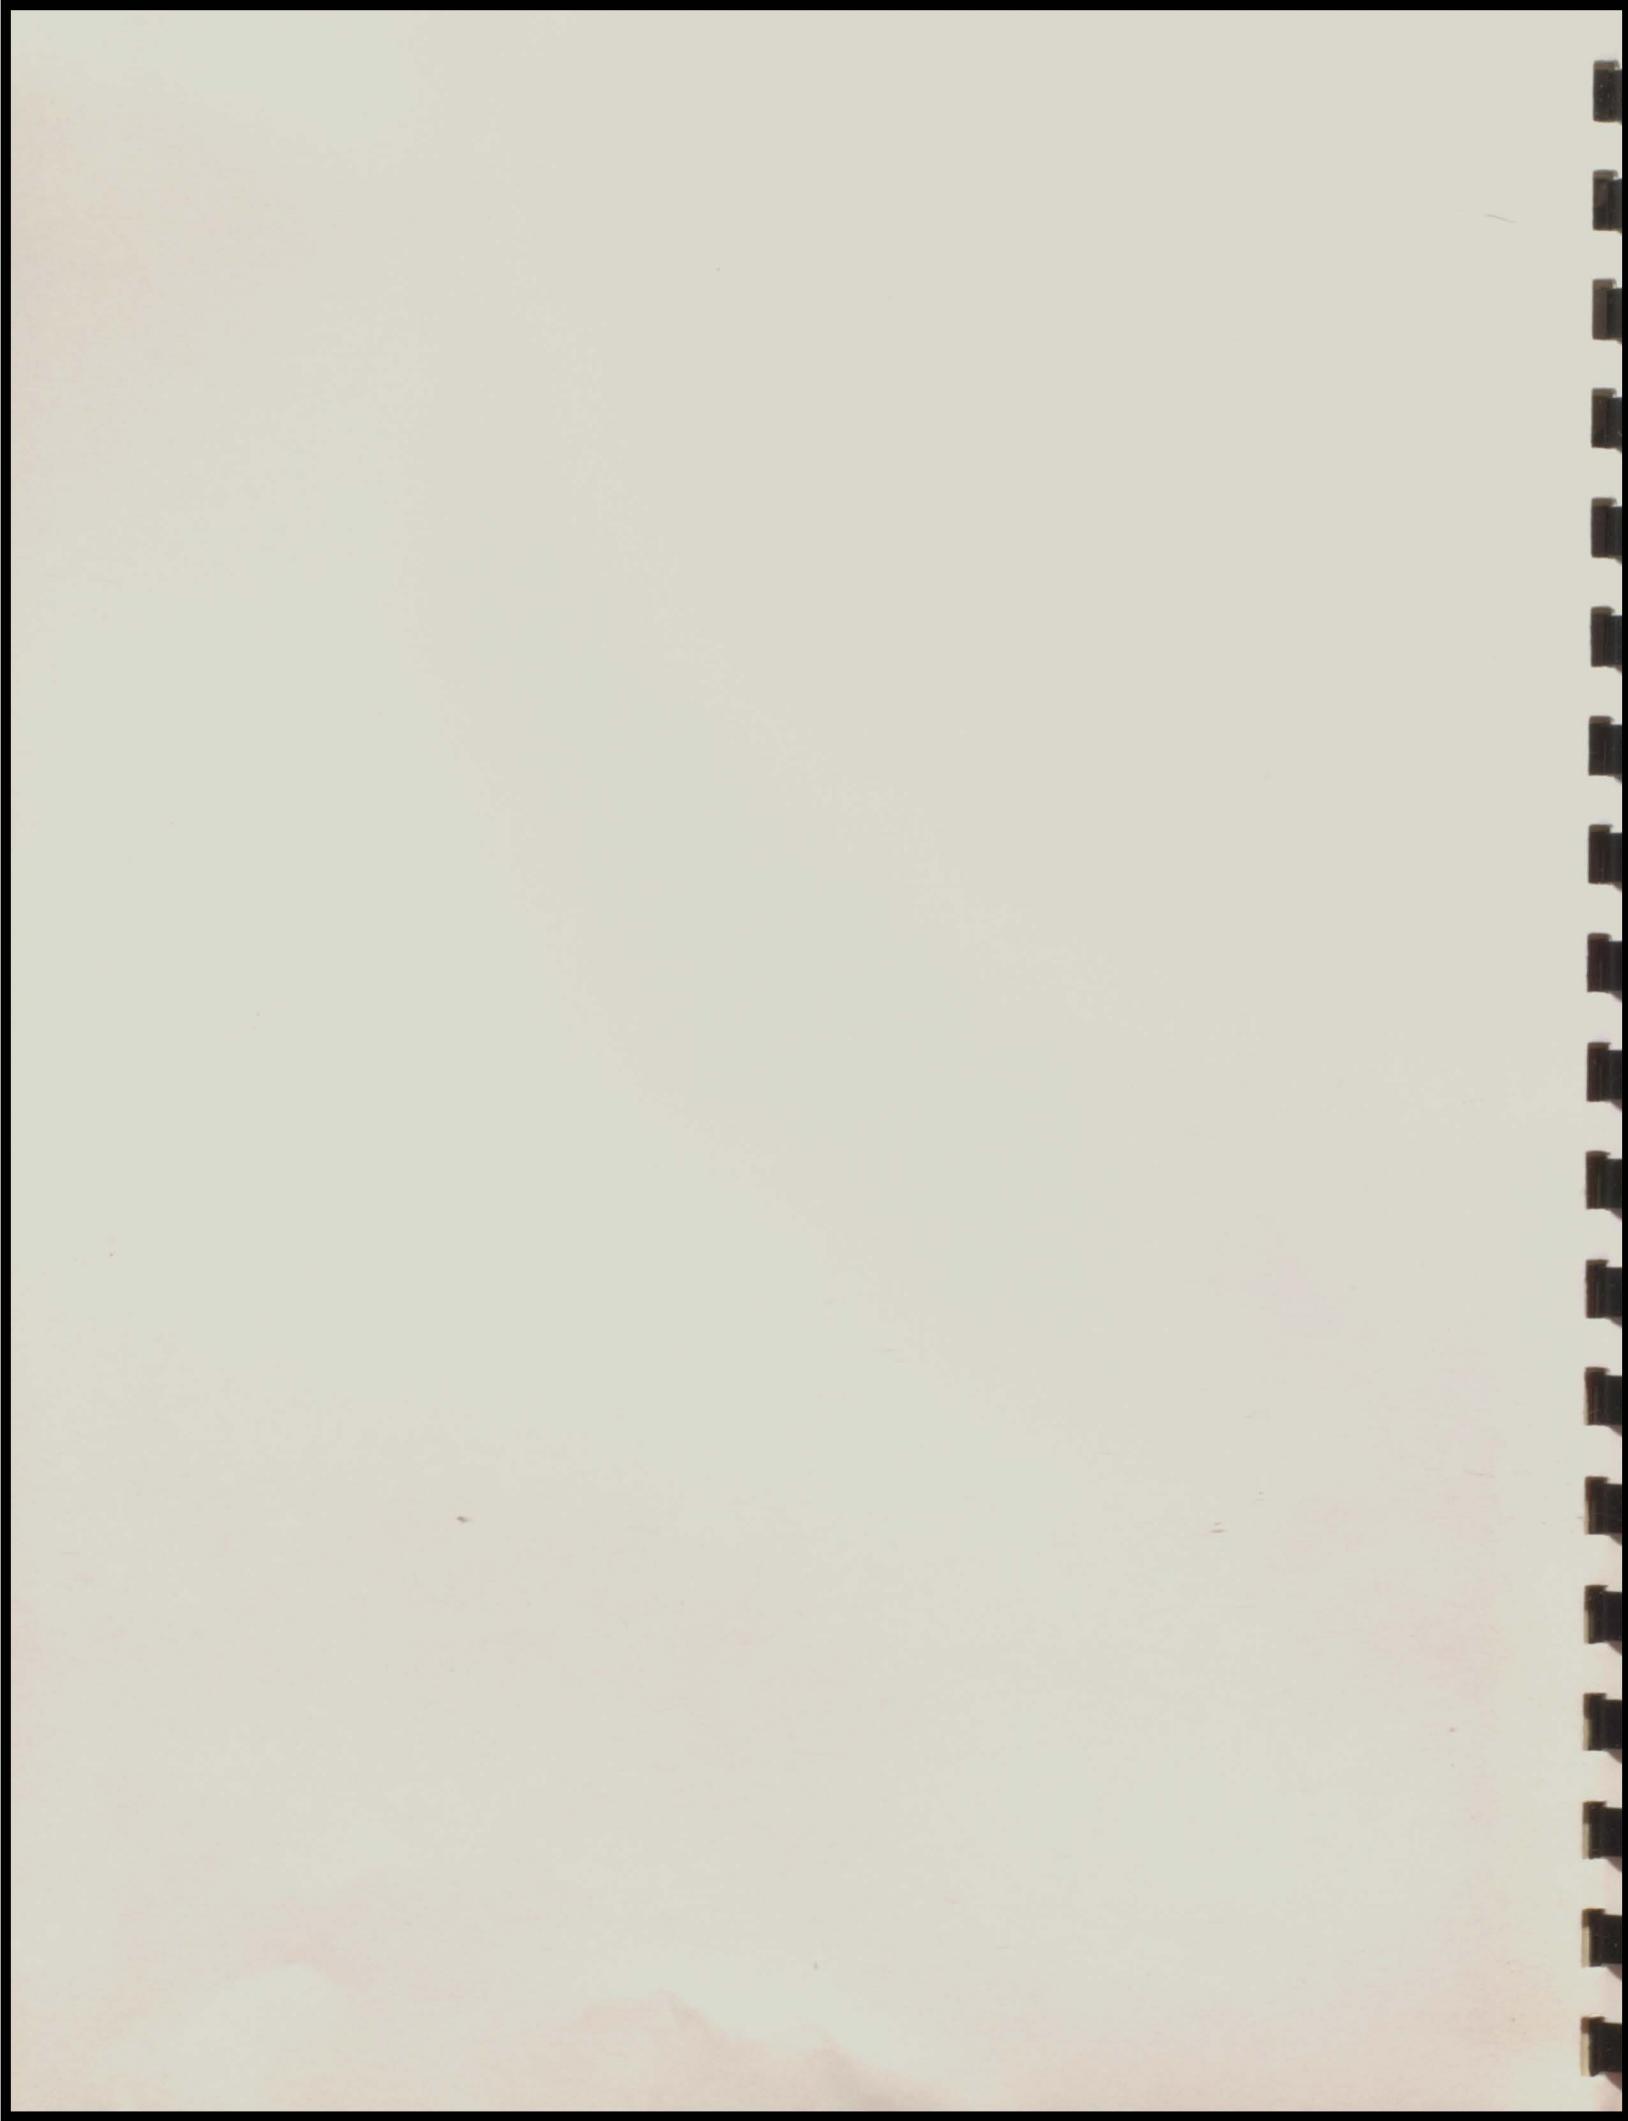

Work is work and must be done,
Yet as I work I have my fun.

EDITH JONES

Not many will you meet
With a smile so staid and sweet.

ALICE KITCHENS

She represents the modern day,
In the steady clean cut modern way.

MIRIAM KITCHENS

Modest and unassuming plus rosy cheeks,
Modern blushes and very sweet.

O. R. KITCHENS

It was his natural wish to please,
And this he does with greatest ease.

MALCOLM MORTON

Well-bred, friendly, lots of wit,
With a welcome grin and lots of grit.

SADIE MOORE

She's little, she's gay,
But a terror, I say.

MARGARET MORTON

Sweet, intelligent, lovely, demure,
Always friendly, truthful and pure.

FRANCES MITCHELL

She's happy, clever, has a wonderful mind,
Girls of her type are hard to find.

HELEN MASON

A face with gladness-overspread,
Soft smiles by human kindness bred.

BLOUNT MATHIS

In arguing he has his skill,
Always talking, talk he will.

TOMMIE RUSSELL

Her intelligence is admired by all her friends,
With her ability and modesty, she always wins.

MARY STEVENS

Hazel eyes and cold black hair,
Were silence golden she'd be a millionaire.

BOB SMALL

A wink and a joke and a broad wry grin,
The love of the class he's sure to win.

PHIL STINE

Voice like a bear and an imagination
That's a big exaggeration.

FRANK STEWART

Duty's his motto, knowledge his aim,
Yet, he's human and jolly all the same.

VALERIA VINCENT

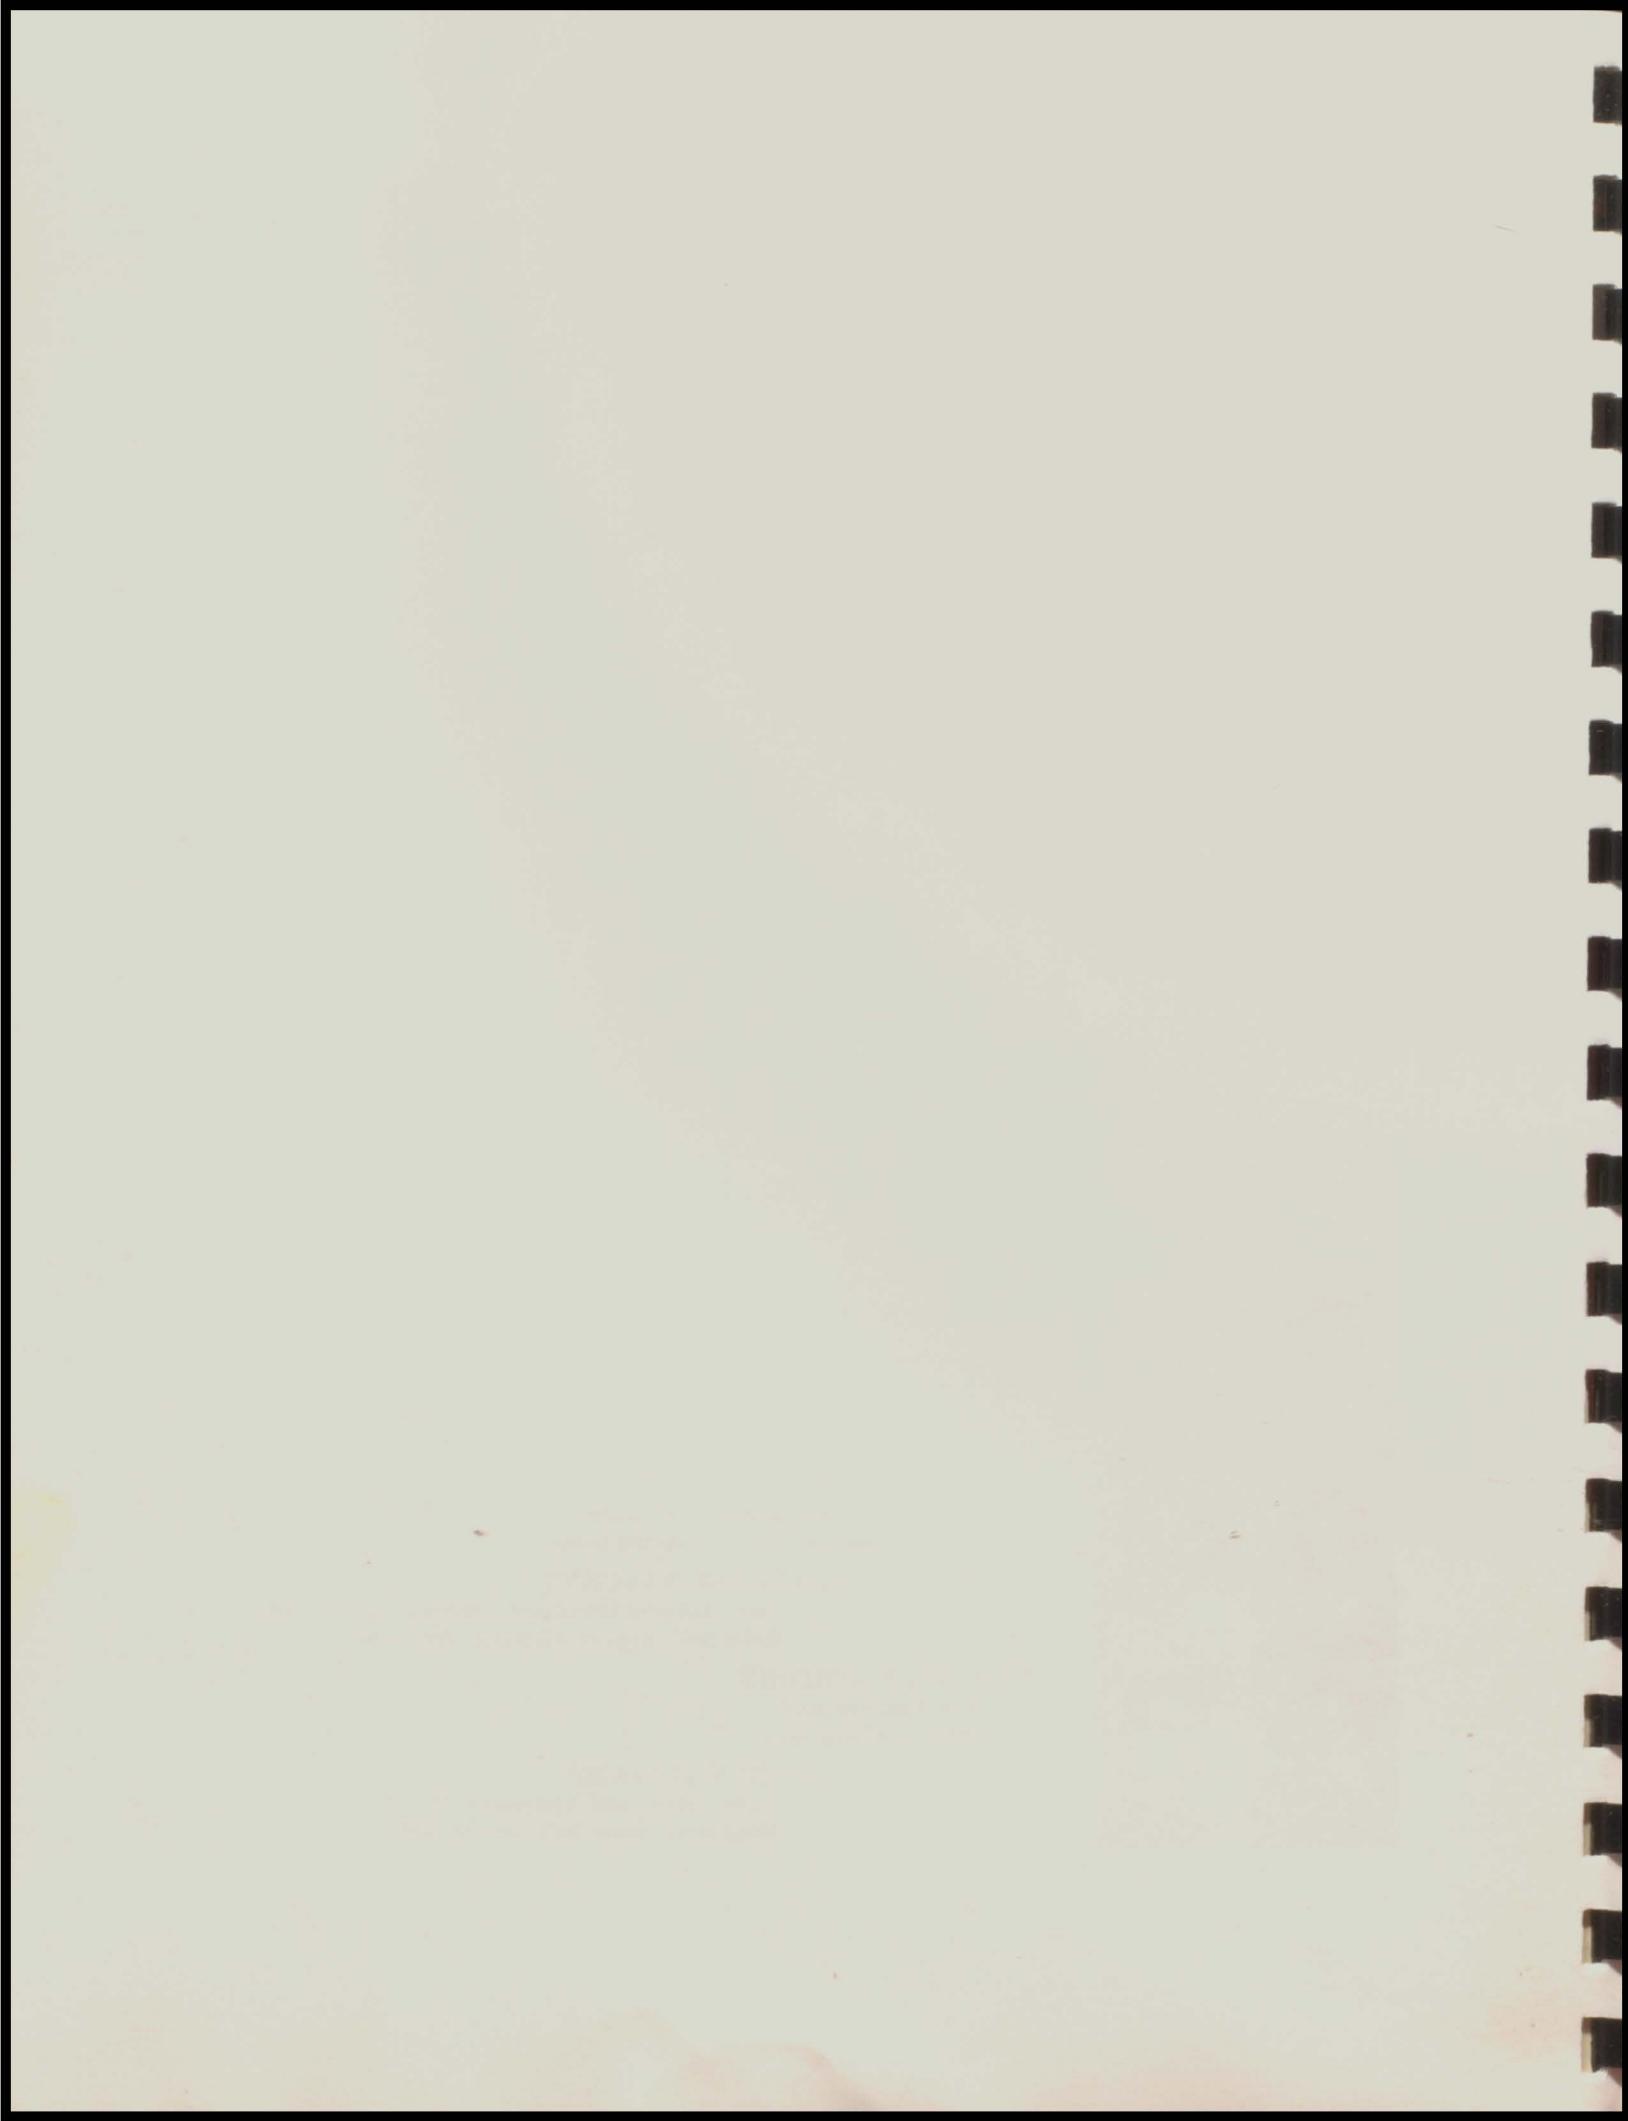

She's tall and intelligent, majestic as a queen,
Calm and elegant wherever she's seen.

BEATRICE WHIDBY

She does her part
With a willing heart.

LOUIE WILLIAMS

Quiet, sweet and everyone's friend,
Margaret's heart he's sure to win.

Class History

In September 1933, twenty-nine of the greenest freshmen you ever saw assembled at Gray High School for a 4 year trip around the world in an airplane. Lieutenant T. F. Folds, Chief-pilot was in command of this exciting adventure. His assistants were: Mr. Douglas Rumble, Jr. Co-pilot, Mrs. W. J. Morton and Mrs. Hattie E. Chiles were hostesses. Mr. C. N. Charles and Miss Geneva Williams accompanied us on this first hop to get acquainted with their future passengers. We had good flying weather that year. Only a few mishaps occurred. Toward the end of the first year's motor trouble and stopped for repairs and six others couldn't take it so they bailed out in parachutes to travel some other way. One of the amusing incidents was the mock court we held. Bob Small vs the State. The charge was for breaking a desk. He must have lost weight considerable since then for he is so kind and gentle he wouldn't do it intentionally for anything now---- or would he?

We had a three month stop which completed $\frac{1}{2}$ of our journey.

While we stopped we added 6 of our friends for our next flight. Mr. Folds, our chief-pilot was offered a better position with the Butler air line which he accepted. We had to get a new chief-pilot so we looked around and found Mr. Perry Westbrook on the Haddock plane whom we persuaded to be our chief-pilot. Mr. Rumble rumbled around in the clouds and found a job as singing-pilot for the Tucker air line. Mr. O. B. Wike took his place as co-pilot. Our new friends seemed to be dissatisfied with our travels so five of them bailed out. The rest stayed and enjoyed the trip very much.

We landed for our second three months' stop.

On our third term trip we left with 49 passengers. Our trip began to attract attention. People from different places came to join us. We took 5 off the Round Oak plane, 10 off the Haddock plane, 3 off Macon, 1 Fort Gaines, 3 Griswoldville, 3 Juliette, 1 Tenn. We let 6 passengers off in different places during this hop.

We then took our last landing before the end of our trip.

We began our last flight with a large number of passengers. Our old plane was exchanged for the New Gray High. This new plane was made under the direction and supervision of Mr. W. E. Knox, Board of Commissioners, and grants from the public works administration. With our new plane we intended to make our last nine months the most successful, most eventful, and most prosperous of all our trip. In an effort to do this we published an annual, a monthly newspaper, and entered all the Athletic and Literary events. But like all the rest of our flights there are always passengers who have to leave us for various reasons. We had 11 to take their departure before our landing safely back home again. Now that we are landing, everyone is thinking about what he or she is going to do. Everybody has some definite thing planned and we hope that future years will fulfill for each of them his dearest expectations.

Motto

Climb though the way be rugged.

Parting

Farewell schoolhouse where we dare not dwell,
And you dear teachers, farewell, farewell!
You too, dear pupils, that we love so true
Remember the conversations 'tween us and you?
As we at noon go riding away,
Your shades are down your windows are gray.
The light glows soft on your red brick tiles
And we must be riding a thousand miles.
Riding away over hill and dale,
Like the youngest son in a fairy tale;
To find some country that needs a youth
To kill its giants and dragons, forsooth!
Come up, our ponies! Sleep sound, my dears!
We shall be back in maybe a year.
Goodbye little school where we'd like to dwell,
And you, our schoolmates, Farewell, Farewell!

Tune (Pagan Love Song)

Come and see, dear Seniors
What we have for you
What the earth is gaining
To teach you to be true.
The wide old world is calling
To it we'll reply
And we'll come tiptoeing
With a willing sigh.

In our ears it whispers
Rise and wander forth
To see what we are trying
To teach you to be worth
So plant a tree whose leaf
The yew-tree leaf will suit
When the shade is over
Turn and pluck the fruit.

Sophomores

On September 3, 1936 the freshmen of 1935--36 were proud to become sophomores and prouder still to begin a new school year in the new building. We started out as the smallest class in High School and still remain so.

We were beginning to think, however, that we were a class without a teacher or a room because of all the changes to be made they were always made on us. We first occupied the present science room and our home room teacher was Mr. Pulliam. Afterward we were moved to the present ninth grade room. They then took Mr. Pulliam and gave us Miss Louise Young for a home room teacher. This was Miss Young's first year of teaching but she soon found out that those who appeared to be such holy terrors, John Hawkins, Clayton Kitchens, and Alvin Tucker were just "bluffs" and although they were pretty apt to pop up at any time with such dry nonsense that even the teacher would have to laugh, they could be good students and give no trouble if they liked their teacher. So we had no trouble.

During the year we have had many interesting socials. Our first was a Christmas party at the Club house and amid the fun and gaiety of the party the stove politely gave way and collapsed filling the room with smoke and ruining suits and dresses. This broke up the party.

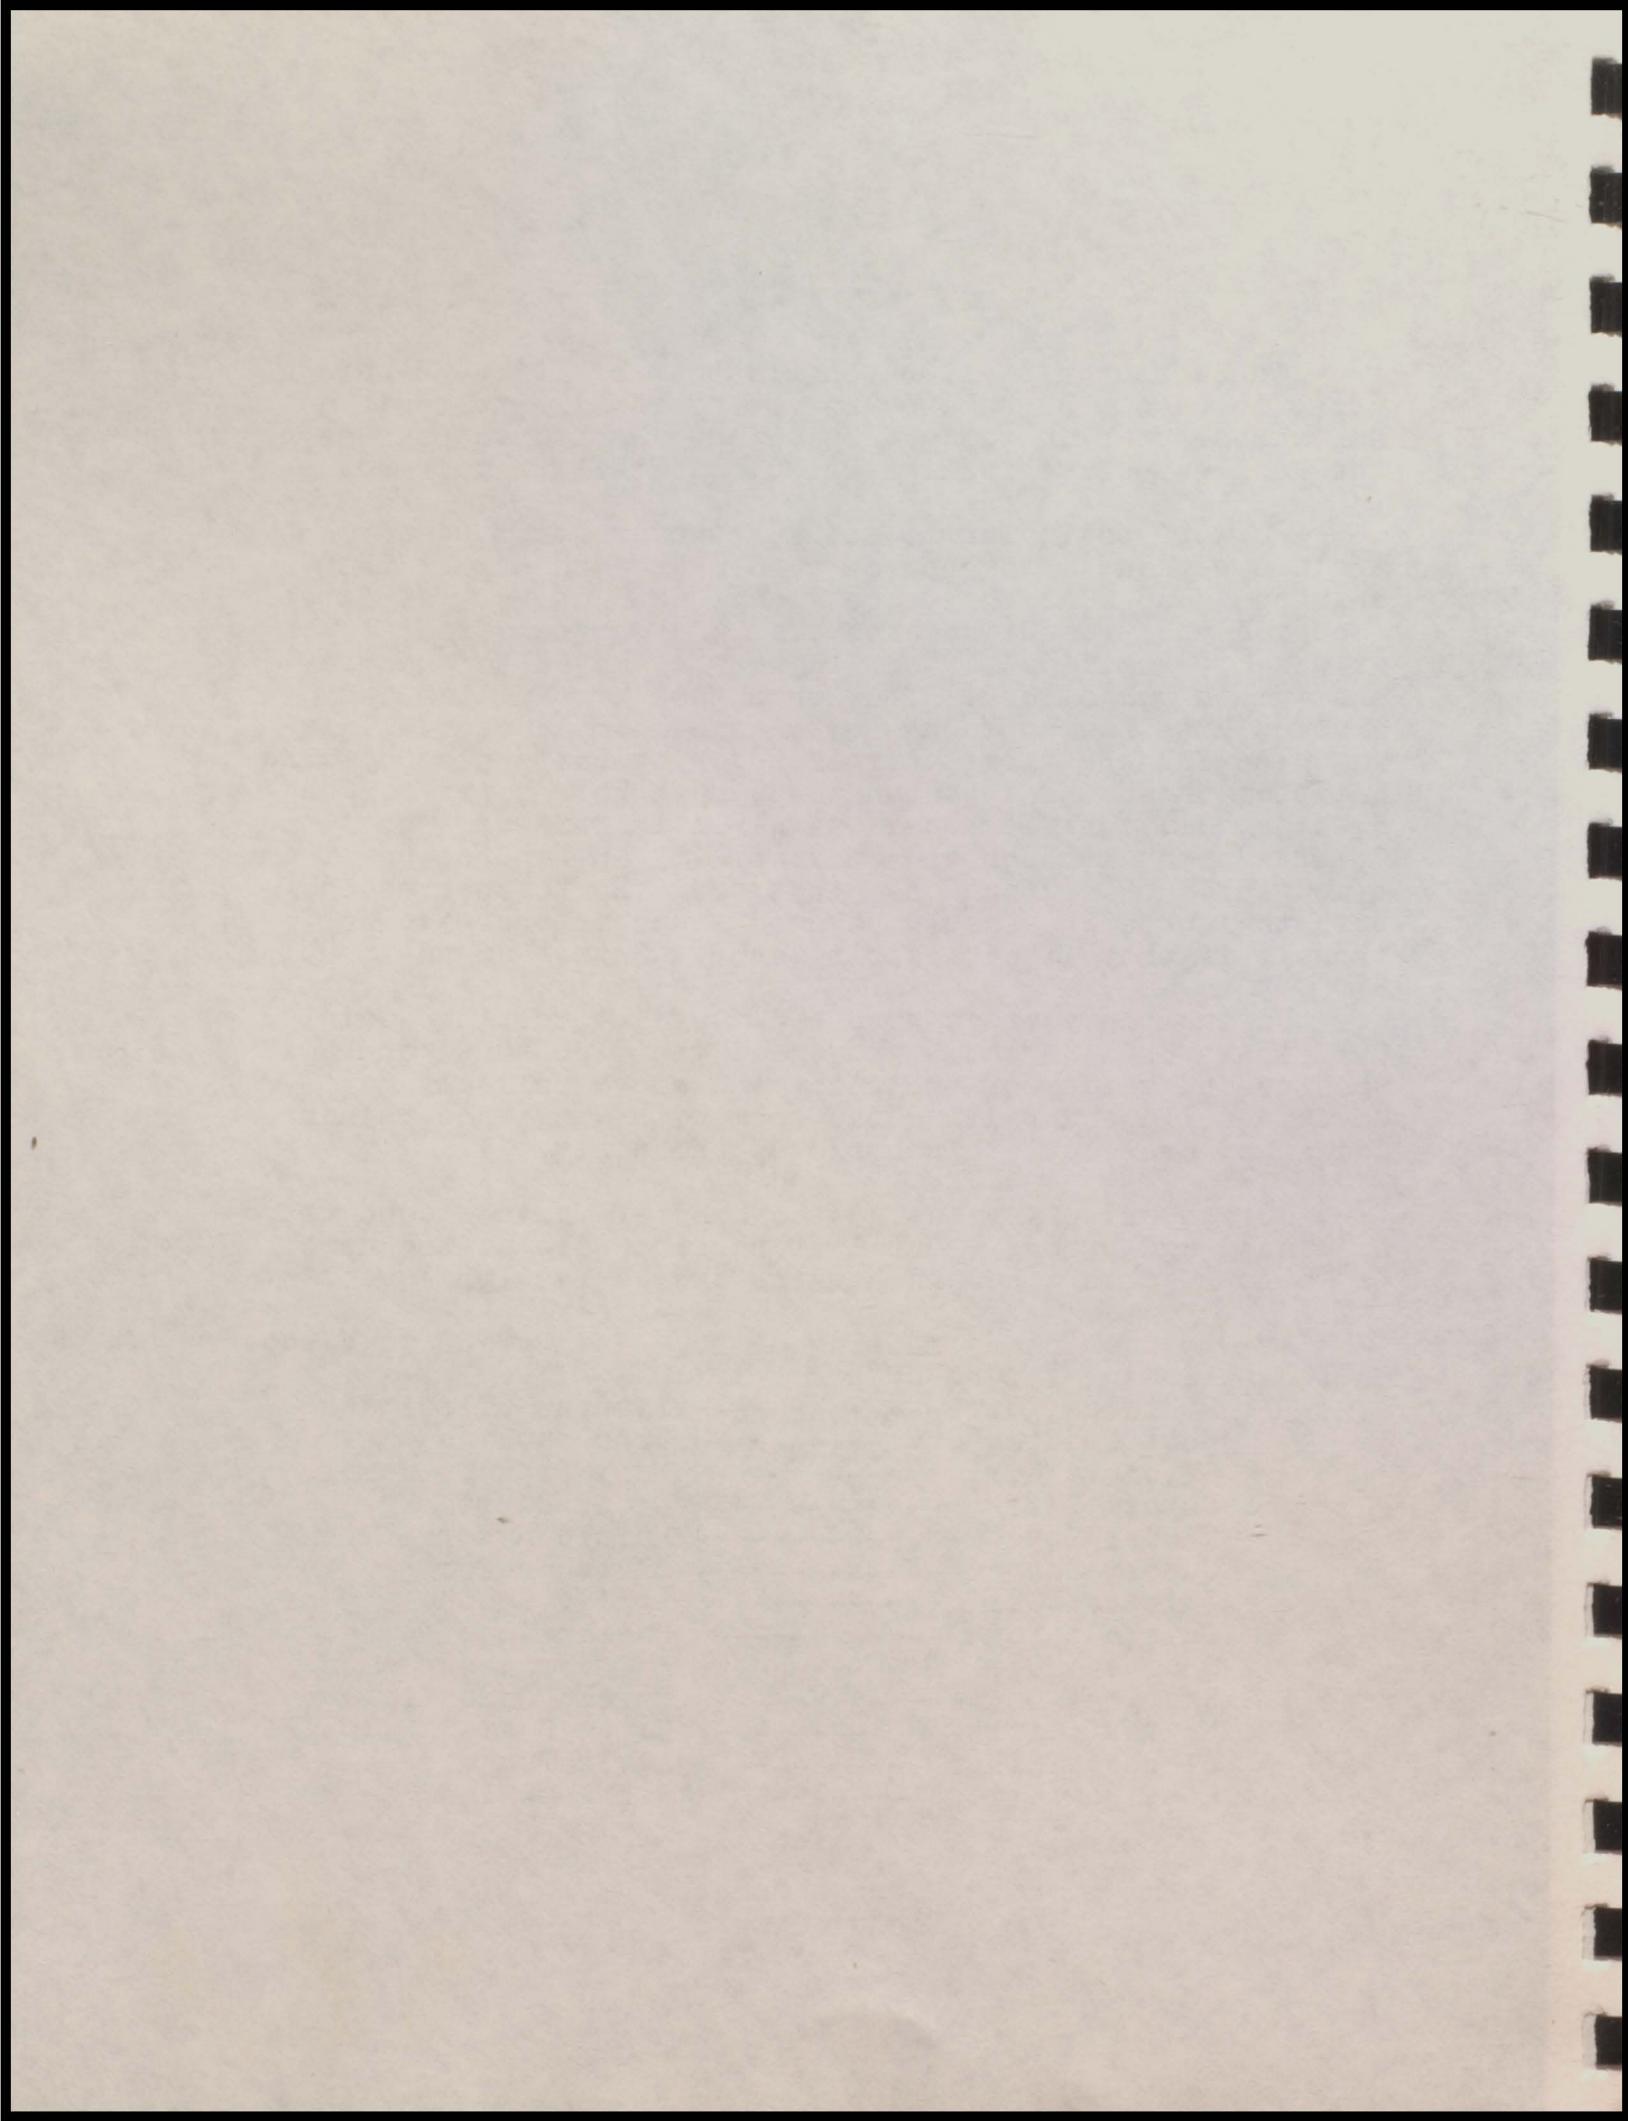

Our second party was at the home of Marie Greene where we danced and promed. Our last parties were at the home of Mobley Gamble and John Hawkins and at Maudlyn Jewett's.

At the last class meeting of the ninth grade we elected the following as Who's Who:

Prettiest Girl -----	Frances Bilderback
Best Looking Boy -----	John Hawkins
Sweetest Girl -----	Mary Frances Comer
Cutest Girl -----	Grace Davis
Nicest Boy -----	Harold Haverfield

The History of the Football Team of 1936

The first game of the season was played with Madison on their field. This being the first game of the season the whole high school was full of pep and energy. A great number from the school and town were attendants at this game in Madison. The score ended in a tie which was 0 -- 0.

The Grayhounds journeyed to Dublin for their next game. Everyone was thrilled over this game also. They came away with a victory for dear old Gray High. The score was 13--0.

Pete Gibson and Ralph Carver scored the touchdowns and Willie Clements added the extra point.

The following game was a popper-upper also. The Grayhounds met Tonnille on Gray's field. This was a hard fight. The struggle ended with another victory for Gray. The score was 27 -- 0. Scoring the touchdowns for Gray were; Willie Clements, 3; Ralph Carver 1.

On Friday, October the ninth one of the hardest struggles of the season was fought. This game was with Madison on Gray's field. The Grayhounds were defeated 6 -- 0. This defeat was hard to take, but it takes true sports to lose with a smile.

HASTCO

The most exciting game of the season was October 23. It was with Monticello. The whole school was all wrought up over it. But alas! The game ended 6 -- 0 in favor of Monticello.

After having been defeated twice the Grayhounds really know how to appreciate a 7 -- 0 victory over Dublin the following Friday.

The next game was with Wrightsville. The victory was 20 -- 0 in favor of Gray.

November 13, they met Wrightsville again on Gray's field. The game ended in a 21 -- 0 victory in favor of Gray.

At last the great day came when The Grayhounds and a large number of students and town people left for Monticello to meet The Purple Hurricanes. Everyone had plenty of pop. When the final whistle blew, Monticello led Gray with a score of 27 -- 14.

The girls' basketball team was very successful this season, even though luck turned against them as they neared the end of the tournament in Wrightsville.

Coach Charles had a good strong team this season; one of the best that has ever represented Gray High School. When his girls won a game it didn't mean that they quit trying. It only made them work harder to win the next one. When they lost they took it like true and good sports.

The following is a schedule of this season's games.

TEAM -----	SCORE
WE	THEY
Eatonton -----	33 ----- 9
Gordon -----	8 ----- 18
Forsyth -----	29 ----- 7
Gordon -----	13 ----- 10
Monticello -----	38 ----- 8
Roberta -----	21 ----- 21
Forsyth -----	26 ----- 4
Monticello -----	30 ----- 11

Tournament Games

Wrightsville -----	31 ----- 30
Sparts -----	30 ----- 21
Eatonton -----	30 ----- 30
Gordon -----	31 ----- 26

Only 196 points were scored against Gray, while Gray's team scored 320 points on other teams.
